flaring up and you could be feeling bad later. If controlled and channeled properly, you may be able to express your feelings and have the other persons understand them. If at all you are feeling disgruntled, this could be a good time to go in for self correction before you reach out to your romantic partner.

This period also makes you anxious about your love life, love partners and related matters. Unless watched properly, you could be a little eccentric and at times nervous with regard to your love matters. Interestingly, at the same time you have the potential to be quite generous and charitable during this period but not so lucky in romantic matters.

There is a possibility that your time and attention is divided between love and professional commitments. If at this moment you have no interest or are indecisive about being in a relationship, channelize your extra energy to get fit- both mentally and physically. This will leave you stimulated in every area of your life and ready for any opportunity that knocks on your door.

1ST FEBRUARY 2011 TO 30TH APRIL 2011

With regards to your abundant sensual desires now, which may be too finicky or angry at times, don't rush things. Impatience needs to be kept under control. Organize yourself and your thoughts so that appropriate actions follow which suit your personality.

The choice is yours during this period – to chose between career matters or too much romance. In fact it would be a good idea if you maintain a balance and fully reap the benefits of a good career potential being offered at this times. Treat this as a fun time for you as the period gives you an increase in your energy, and particularly in your sensuality. Having fun through spontaneous playfulness, singing, dancing, lovemaking adds zest to your time. After work, ensure that there is music and romance in the air. This way your rhythms shall be in harmony. A pleasing emotional or sensual experience can be part of the picture in this period.

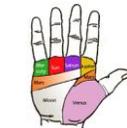

1ST MAY 2011 TO 31ST JULY 2011

Socializing, networking and professionalism is favored during this period. Financial transactions benefit during this period as it is favorable period for commerce. Socially you found to be very affectionate, fortunate, virtuous, and skillful. This period is bestowed about you happiness, fame and higher position.

A word of caution – do not be selfish or self centered. This is a good time to tackle diplomatically sensitive subjects and for negotiations.

Therefore, you will have to consciously ensure that there is peace, and happiness at home. You will have to forego your anger, the feeling of superiority or any other unwanted emotions because of your high position or professional success. This will lead to happy home, sound mind and a great bank balance. By all means increase your personal magnetism.

It is also a great time to tell someone how you feel. You are likely to be very self indulgent during this period and end up gaining some weight as a result. You will feel expansive and want to increase your enjoyment. You will also want to intensify the connections you have already established.

This harmonious aspect will activate all of your energies, emotional, sensuous and affectionate. In general you are going to be much surer of expressing your emotions.

This is a good time for initiatives and decision making and is often a time of increased activity and self confidence. You may like to settle down in your relationship, you feel energetic and are capable of taking decisions with the ability to get a lot done quickly. Sometimes you may deal with individuals who do not play fairly. Self expression is more important to you now. This period may stimulate your libidinal energy.

1ST AUGUST TO 31ST OCTOBER 2011

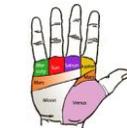

While there will be continuity of most of the trends from the previous quarter, it is the later part which I would like to dwell upon in detail and interpret the positions of the planets. From September 2011 onwards, there are indications that you may tend to get somewhat bored or disillusioned and not really see much variety / thrill coming from others. When you realize that others have not lived up to your expectations, you may be very disappointed and disillusioned.

But it would be highly recommended that you see the things from a different perspective. Your emotions and feelings are a result of your perception which needs to undergo a paradigm at this point of time. Once you achieve a wholistic picture of the state of affair, you may actually start enjoying it. You may then want to be away from anything that distracts you in this high period of romance and love. emotions are highly lifted and your lust for life is strong. There's so much fun and enjoyment that it may be difficult to be level-headed.

This is a wonderful time for love, as this period brings you new loving feelings and thoughts. You will be tuned into the deeper and finer levels of love now. It is a time of increased sensuality, and this brings a luxurious feeling to your life. You could have a particularly happy and satisfying experience now. If you chose wisely you will get a lot of positive feedback about a love relationship now. This will stir up in you a new lease on life and love.

This period slowly begins to bestow some social sense and good manners in dealing with the members of opposite sex as per your culture. If you are looking for someone, look for the one who is temperamentally aligned with you and your mood swings. Another tip could be that you analyze whether your feelings are reciprocated or not. If so then this will be the relation formed will prove to be stimulating one.

Now you know how to use your charm to gain the approval of society and of the established institutions with which you deal. It is good time in relation to financial affairs, public relations, partnerships, social activities, and marriage.

Be assured that towards the end of the quarter luck will be on your side, with higher sex appeal you will be capable of charming and mystifying your love partner.

Your affections stabilize and mature. Relationships are reinforced and steady, although feelings are expressed reservedly, formally, or sparingly. A new sense of realism in existing partnerships comes now.
